

Rabbi's Message, May 2017

Dear Friends,

Our tradition rightly teaches that "it is only thanks to the breath of schoolchildren that the world endures." (B. Shabbat 119b).

Our Religious School children are such an integral part of Temple Sinai, we are ever so proud of them. They are truly an inspiration and never cease to amaze us!

This past year, we were blessed to have congregants lead unique projects (from challah cloth making and gardening to cooking and musical activities) and other congregants serve as substitute teachers.

The students really enjoyed those highlights and it was just wonderful seeing such great intergenerational learning happening!

As our Religious School year draws to a close, let us take the time to appreciate how much they have learned and grown over the months.

They have been busy preparing for the End of Year / Recognition Shabbat service scheduled for Saturday, May 13, at 10 a.m.

I hope you all will plan to join us on that occasion, root for our amazing students, and stay for the potluck lunch immediately following services.

It will be a great way to connect with one another and enjoy a special service and a delicious meal!

Please let Mary Beth know what dish you are planning to bring so that she can best coordinate efforts.

We look forward to seeing you then!

Rabbi Séverine Sokol
