SEPTEMBER 2016 - 5776

A Message from the Rabbi

I am always tickled when I hear someone say the High Holy Days are early or late in a given year. In truth, they always occur on the same dates, at least in the Hebrew calendar!

However, since we are accustomed to living by the Gregorian calendar, we never quite get that impression. For example, this year, one might sense that the holidays are late since, unlike last year's holidays, which were in September, this year's holidays occur in October.

As a Rabbi, whose workload is the most intense at this season, as much as I look forward to them, I always feel as if there is never enough time to perfect all the intricacies of our holy day festivities. No matter how early I start working on preparations the holidays still catch me a bit by surprise.

A helpful heads-up is Selichot, which this year falls in September and always in the month of Elul. Elul allows us to ponder over the past year and gradually get ready for the Yamim Noraim, the Days of Awe.

The very first reference to a sequence of Selichot prayers appears in Tanna de-Vei Eliyahu Zuta, a midrash whose writing may have spanned from the 3rd to the 10th century. Tanna de-Vei Eliyahu Zuta raises a legitimate question: With the upcoming destruction of the second Temple and the end of sacrificial rituals, how would the Israelites now atone for their sins?

The midrash answers:

The Holy One blessed be He said, "When troubles come upon Israel because of their iniquities, let them stand together before Me as one band and confess their iniquities before Me and recite before Me the order of Selichot and I will answer them."

The discovery, in the prayer book Seder Rav Amram, of an order of Selichot as alluded to in the midrash, dates back to the 9th century.

Selichot services echo our Yom Kippur worship and are truly beautiful and inspirational. They consist of penitential prayers, through which we ask for forgiveness, remembering that the Eternal One is merciful and compassionate.

A Selichot tradition consists in dressing the Torah scrolls in white mantles, in anticipation of the Days of Awe. White symbolizes purity. During Selichot, we affirm our willingness to change for the better and purify ourselves through prayers and acts of Teshuvah, repentance. This idea stems from Isaiah 1:18, which talks about our crimson sins becoming white as snow:

*"Come, let us reach an understanding,
Be your sins like crimson,
They can turn snow-white;
Be they red as dyed wool,
They can become like fleece."*

In Ashkenazi circles, Selichot is traditionally observed on the Saturday night preceding Rosh HaShanah. This year the traditional community wide program will be staged at the UJC.

In Temple Sinai's special calendar of events as a unique treat in order to make it easier on our own congregants and friends to experience this liturgy without the late night and lengthier attendance requirements, we have planned to hold our own Selichot services, combined with Shabbat prayers, earlier (7:30 PM), on Friday, September 23rd at Temple Sinai. I look forward to you joining us.

L'Shanah Tovah, wishing you all a Happy New Year,
Rabbi Séverine Sokol

2016-2017 Four Author Events

A Collaboration of the Jewish Book

Council - Temple Sinai- United Jewish Community

First Event: Sunday, September 11th

7:00 PM at the UJC - Robert Gillette's entire professional career revolved around young people. For 40 years, he was an award-winning public school educator in Fairfield, CT, receiving the Mary Gresham Chair grant and the Harvard Teaching Prize. He has directed religious education programs and created a Jewish education curriculum. Jewish teenagers Eva and Töpper desperately searched for an escape from the stranglehold of 1930s Nazi Germany. They studied agriculture at the Gross Breesen Institute and hoped to secure visas to gain freedom from the tyranny around them. Richmond department store owner William B. Thalhimier created a safe haven on a rural Virginia farm where Eva and Töpper would find refuge. Discover the remarkable true story of two young German Jews who endured the emotional torture of their adolescence, journeyed to freedom and ultimately confronted the evil that could not destroy their spirit. Author Robert H. Gillette retells this harrowing narrative that is sure to inspire generations to come.

A Word From Brotherhood

The first Brotherhood breakfast of the year will take place on September 25th at 10:00 A.M. As an under graduate at Brown she was the first women and African-American to be elected Student Body President of any Ivy League school.

Sisterhood News

The Sisterhood has just completed another successful year. I would like to thank everyone who has helped in the past year. I would like to encourage all women of Temple Sinai to join the Sisterhood. Your support has been vital towards Sisterhood's success. You should have recently received the annual membership form. If you have any questions or have not received the form, please contact Ilene Leiss.

Starting in November, you will notice a change to the Pulpit flowers. We will be using artificial arrangements for most services. We have worked with Stephen, at Bert's Flower Shop, to make arrangements similar to the fresh arrangements we now use. Stephen is the designer who makes the fresh arrangements. Fresh flowers will be used for the High Holidays and can be ordered by members to commemorate a special event if they choose. Starting in November, we will no longer be requesting donations for the Floral Fund.

There is also a change in how we will fund onegs. Instead of asking for a sponsor or co-sponsor for each oneg, we have established an Oneg Fund. Contributions to this fund are $36 and can be made to commemorate a Yahrzeit or celebrate special occasions such as anniversaries, birthdays and graduations. Contributions will be listed in the monthly bulletin and the weekly service leaflet.

The next Sisterhood activity will be on Sunday, September 25th. We will enjoy a cruise of the Hampton Roads Harbor aboard the Miss Hampton II followed by dinner at a local restaurant. Please see the flyer elsewhere in the bulletin for more information.

Other planned activities are:

Rosh Chodesh – November 1st

Chanukah Dinner – December 30th – jointly sponsored with the Brotherhood

Pot Luck Lunch following Service - January 28th - jointly sponsored with the Brotherhood

Shalom,
Leslie Borwick

Nutritional Information

I think September, especially in the weather crazy Hampton Roads, makes for a really fun food time. It's the month when summer meets fall and you get the best of both worlds in produce. My favorite thing to do this time of year is to translate my summer staple meals into fall friendly renditions. Kabobs, for example, are an easy to make meal that can be made just as delicious with iconic autumn foods. Apples, fennel, sweet potatoes, and squash would all be excellent added to a summer recipe or combined for a completely new kind of skewer. The same can be done with burgers, salads, pizzas, etc. In the past I've also mentioned how vegetable scraps can be saved and used to create broths, but I think this time of year is perfect for saving fruit scraps to make homemade ciders. Making ciders from some end of summer fruits like berries and peaches and fall flavors like apple and cinnamon can really tie the seasons together in a healthy and fun way. Plus, making your own ciders gives you control of the sugar content and ensures that they are made with real fruit rather than artificial flavors. And, of course, adding pumpkin spice to lighter summer friendly foods can also bring the feeling of fall to the warmer parts of the season. Pumpkin spice yogurt, popsicles, and granola are all great ways to bring the flavor other than coffee and pie. I hope you guys have a fun and healthy start to fall!

Thank you to everyone who contributed plastic bags to our TREX recycling project. We collected 501 lbs. and plastic is still coming in. I will contact TREX this week about what comes next. Meanwhile, keep the plastic coming. We can try for a second bench, which we can keep or give to another organization. But now that we are in the habit of recycling, let's keep it going.

Starting October 16, 2016 we will be making some changes to our Friday night Shabbat Eve services by having a Pre-Oneg. The Pre-Oneg will take place prior to services rather than after services, as in the past. The Pre-Oneg will start 45 minutes prior to services (6:45 p.m.). Services that are held on Saturday morning will still have the kiddush after services (not prior).

August 2016

Shalom,

With summer almost over and the High Holidays ahead, Temple Sinai again prepares to publish the Book of Memory for the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur afternoon. This practice is in keeping with the established precedence in many Reform congregations and helps to administer the Memorial portion of our Yom Kippur service in a more effective manner. All names listed on the Temple Memorial Board are both listed in the booklet and read during the service.

If your loved one's name is not listed on the Memorial Board, then it must be listed in the Book of Memory to be read on Yom Kippur. Names of those on the Memorial Board may also be included in the booklet, which will be distributed by the ushers at the Yizkor service.

Below is a response form which includes space for you to list the names of those you wish to have listed. Please print clearly (or attach a list), indicate, and include your contribution. Return the form and return it to me no later than September 16th. Make checks payable to TEMPLE SINAI and mail to 11620 Warwick Blvd., Newport News VA 23601

Thank you for your cooperation and support of this Temple Sinai project. If you have any questions, please call me at 596-8352 or email admin@mnsinai.hrcxmail.com

With all best wishes,

Sincerely,
Mary Beth Colgan
