FEBRUARY 2016

A Word from the Rabbi

"Each person's heart is mirror to another's"
(Yiddish proverb)

As you know our Caring Committee, Temple Sinai's beating heart, is one of our synagogue's greatest strengths. We all care deeply for one another.

As someone rightly said, the congregation IS the Caring Committee. We all, in our own ways, participate in the well being of our community, we do not rely solely on the work of a few congregants.

In the same way, the co-chairs of the Caring Committee could not fulfill their tasks without the help of their committee and without your help, just as, as amazing a leader as he was, Moses needed the help of 70 elders in his community to lead wisely and efficiently.

Michele Linn and Jill Keech have co-chaired the committee beautifully, responding and reaching out to our congregants in times of need, with the help of their co-workers. The committee has been an immense source of support and comfort to so many of us!

I wanted to thank Jill for all her time and hard work as Co-Chair of the Caring Committee. Jill took her responsibilities very seriously and was always there for our sick congregants. She displayed so much concern, compassion, understanding, generosity and diligence in all her undertakings!

I am so grateful to Jill for her dedication, and even though she is no longer able to serve as Co-chair, I am delighted that she will continue to be involved in the committee and to help in any way she can.

I am pleased to let you know that Sheila Schoenberg has graciously agreed to co-chair the committee with Michele. Our heartfelt thanks go to Sheila for her willingness and readiness to play such a vital role in our community.

Like Jill, Sheila is very active in our synagogue. She has been a member of the Caring Committee, she has also been involved in the Ritual Committee, among others, and of course she is a wonderful person! There is no doubt the Caring Committee and Temple Sinai are in great hands.

L'Shalom,
Rabbi Séverine Sokol

Paul & Monique Aronsohn invite you to join them as their son Samuel becomes a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, February 27th, 2016 at 10:00 a.m.

Help Samuel Aronsohn with his mitzvah project. Samuel Aronsohn, son of Paul & Monique Aronsohn, Bar Mitzvah is Saturday, February 27th @ 10:00 a.m. His mitzvah project is for the No Kill Animal Shelter in Hampton. He is collecting can & dry dog food (only one brand, Purina One), brooms, bleach and dish soap and toys. Items can be dropped off at the Temple.

The program is a special extra curricular enrichment program that comes to supplement all the good learning that our students do at Religious School on Sundays! The children will be engaged in various learning activities such as Jewish children's prayers, Jewish art projects, Jewish holiday activities, Jewish stories...and more! Sometimes they will also attend part of the service in the sanctuary on Jewish holidays.

The following recycled materials are needed for Religious School / SHABBAT SHEL. If you have such supplies and do not know what to do with them please give them to Rabbi Sokol!

- Egg cartons (not plastic)
- Buttons
- Beads
- Fabric
- Bottle caps (all kinds)
- Tape (all kinds)
- Sea shells (small)
- Key chain rings
- Dry beans / pasta

The Jewish Book Club Event that was postponed due to the inclement weather on January 24th, is now scheduled for Sunday, February 7th @ 2:00 p.m. It will feature Lee Mandel, author of "Unlikely Warrior: A Pacifist Rabbi's Journey from the Pulpit to Iwo Jima". (see flyer in other part of bulletin)

Music Under the Star
Music from the past to benefit Temple Sinai of the future

Temple Sinai's March 6th Music Under the Star fundraiser will feature Virginia Symphony violinist Pavel Ilyashov who will perform for us. Following the concert, we will have a delicious Italian buffet planned by temple members Lynne Harmonay and Gholam Farrokhpour, and prepared by Gholam, an accomplished chef.

Luncheon music will be provided by talented blues guitarist Zack Salsberry, who is the grandson of temple members Barbara and Stu Flechner.

A few words about Ilyashov, who has been enthusiastically applauded by audiences throughout Europe, Asia and the Americas for his performances as soloist, recitalist and chamber musician: The Miami Herald described his playing as a "brehtaking display of virtuosity and rhapsodic expression." Ilyashov is originally from Minsk, Belarus. He is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. In addition to performing, he has taught masterclasses at numerous festivals throughout the Americas.

There is no cost to attend this special event but donation giving cards will be distributed. Funds raised will benefit the Rabbi's Fund of our temple. Music Under the Star Table Captains are calling temple members to take their reservation.

Join us, enjoy a great concert, great food and friendship and make a contribution to ensure the future of Temple Sinai.

If you need additional information, please contact Jill Keech at orioles@cox.net or at 757-871-6724.

It's time to get back to work in the Biblical Garden. Our next garden workday will be held Sunday, Feb. 21, starting at 10 a.m. We will be doing a lot of pruning and cutting, so please bring saws and loppers. A chain saw would also be helpful.

We are also looking for volunteers to help get the Herb Garden restarted. We will provide seeds, pots and soil to anyone who can help get some seeds started in January and February so they can be transferred to the garden once the threat of frost is over. For more information, contact Christina Verderosa at 874-8174 or verderosahcxris-tina@yahoo.com.

Brotherhood Breakfast

The Brotherhood will have their next breakfast meeting on February 28th with our very own Christina Verderosa as the guest speaker. The subject will be the Temple Biblical Garden. It is time for the spring clean up and pruning. Christina and Jan Rockoff have put in many hours in trying to make the Garden the beautiful garden it once was. Please join us for this presentation.

Sisterhood has arranged for a trip to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts on March 13th at 1pm. This includes a group tour of the American Art collection and tickets to the Rodin exhibit. We will have lunch before hand. The cost for the museum is $19, lunch is at your own expense. This is open to all Temple members and guests. Please RSVP to Leslie Borwick at d1borwick@cox.net or 757-850-2394 as soon as possible but no later than February 21st. Carpooling will be arranged. More information will be forthcoming.

LifeLong Learning Brochures - The LifeLong Learning Society of Christopher Newport University invites those of you of retirement age, to expand your horizons. Join LLS to register for exciting classes, trips, concerts and lectures. You may also participate in the book club, the bridge group, discussion group or Mahjongg. Join your peers for an exciting Spring at the Yoder Barn. To join, register by mail or call 269-4368 or visit lifelonglearning.cnu.edu. Spring classes begin January 25th. Brochures are available in the Temple library.

Nutritional Information

Now that we're in a new calendar year, every store seems to have a shelf dedicated to products claiming to detox and cleanse your body to help you jumpstart a healthy lifestyle. The quickest and easiest way to determine which of these products is worth your money is to know that none of them are worth anything. When it comes to detoxifying and cleansing your liver and kidneys will do all the work for you so you can skip the pills and lemon-cayenne water.

If you are interested in kick starting a new healthy chapter the best way is to make slow and realistic changes over time. Set goals that you know you can stick to and avoid anything majorly restrictive. For many people, restrictions and hard rules create desire that can interrupt progress. Instead, go back to the golden rule of "crowd out the bad" and find enough healthy meal choices that you no longer have room in your diet for junk.

Another option for those who have a bit of self-discipline and are maybe prone to cravings is to try cutting out any junk food you regularly eat for a week or two. Replace these foods with fruits, vegetables, whole grains, and water for that time and pay attention to how you feel. Many times this sort of temporary restriction can act as a restart for your cravings and habits. You may notice that when you eat the "bad" foods again that they aren't as enjoyable as they once were and you'll be more likely to keep with the foods you replaced them with.

Health is a journey and there are several paths there. The important thing is to persevere and remember that every day is a new chance for better choices. Happy January, everyone!

New Date: From the Pulpit to Iwo Jima

Before you head off to your Super Bowl Party, come to Temple Sinai for the fascinating story of Rabbi Roland Gittlesohn.

When Gittlesohn was still a student, he embraced the cause of pacifism and once he obtained his own pulpit, preached passionate sermons opposing war for any reason. But all that changed with the attack on Pearl Harbor. Gittlesohn joined the Navy, and became the first Jewish chaplain assigned to the Marine Corps. While serving with them, he witnessed the horrors of the battle of Iwo Jima. During the dedication of the Iwo Jima cemetery, he gave a sermon, which came to be known as the "Gettysburg Address of WWII," where he extolled the "highest and purest democracy," represented by the fallen.

Lee Mandel is a retired US Navy doctor and historian who lives in Suffolk, Virginia.

"Unlikely Warrior: A Pacifist Rabbi's Journey from the Pulpit to Iwo Jima"

Come hear Lee Mandel talk about his book
Sunday, February 7 at 2 p.m.

at Temple Sinai
11620 Warwick Blvd.
Newport News

"Unlikely Warrior" will be on sale in advance at Temple Sinai and at the event. Light refreshments will be served. This event is free and open to all.
Call 596-8352 for more information.

Lee Mandel's appearance is made possible through the Jewish Book Council network.

"And on your joyous occasions—your fixed festivals and new moon days—you shall sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being."

Celebrate Rosh Chodesh with Temple Sinai Sisterhood

Rosh Chodesh,
the festival of the New Moon has become a traditional women's holiday.
According to legend, the holiday was a reward given to the women of Israel because they refused to surrender their jewelry for the creation of the Golden Calf. Because of their righteousness, the women were exonerated from working on Rosh Chodesh.

Wednesday, February 10 6 p.m.

Home of Michele Linn
107 Aquia Turn, Yorktown

The Rosh Chodesh service will be followed by a meal.

Please bring a dish for a potluck dinner.

RSVP to Michele Linn at 868-7421 or email mlinn3@verizon.net by Feb. 3..

Share the delight of Shabbat Sponsor an Oneg

The word "Oneg" means delight, and there are many occasions that provide a reason to share delight with our Temple Sinai family. Celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, retirement, promotion or honor or remember a friend or family member by sponsoring an Oneg.

It's easy to do. There's no cooking, cleaning or set up involved. All you have to do is contact Sharon Stieffen and give her the date you want. Then you can send in your payment of $100 for a full Oneg or $50 for a co-sponsorship or Sisterhood can send you a bill.

If you prefer to make a smaller contribution, you can also make a donation to the Oneg Fund to help defray any additional costs not covered by sponsorships. All contributions to the Oneg Fund will be acknowledged in the bulletin.

Your sponsorship provides an assortment of food and drinks as well as a kitchen assistant to take care of set up and clean up.

Sponsors and co-sponsors are listed in the weekly service program and in the monthly Temple bulletin, and their names are read during the announcements at Shabbat services.

If you have a special occasion, here's a chance to commemorate it with a special celebration after Shabbat services. Call Sharon Stieffen at 851-1381 or return the form below to her at 236 N. First Street, Hampton, VA 23664.
